SUNDAYS:
Continuous 2:30 to 11 P. M.

FRIDAY	SATURDAY	SUNDAY	MONDAY and TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY
RUPERT HUGHES' "Cup of Fury" No story has ever been so vividly told in pictures as this great Rupert Hughes' novel, a love story of industrial America. It moves swiftly and surely in a succession of dramatic situations that has never been surpassed in photoplay making. Every American must see this picture. Every moving picture lover will go wild about it. This picture is for YOU! Also Mutt and Jeff Comedy	Anita Stewart —in— "SINS OF THE MOTHER" Gambling fever is a disease that travels through the veins. It is hereditary. It is often incurable. This girl inherited the malady. It swept her through a tornado of events. Also Christie Comedy "Nearly Newlyweds"	Jack Pickford —in— "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come" You will love Pickford as "Chad," the Cumberland mountain lad. He is at his very best in this picture from John Fox's famous story. Also Mr. and Mrs. Carter DeHaven in "Hoodooed"	Irene Castle —in— "The Amateur Wife" The zippy romance of a French convent girl who made Broadway stop, look and listen. Also Al. St. Johns —in— "SHIP AHOY!" See Hero AL in a gale of fun, make the Ancient Mariner look like a landlubber!	Harry Morey —in— "The Darkest Hour" He was a wealthy, high-bred clubman at 11 p. m. At midnight he was a mindless, penniless wanderer. The next day he was a lumberjack. He is a giant in evening dress—a prince in corduroy. A picture that is sure to please. Also Big V comedy, "Pipedreams and Prizes"

THE THEATRE

The Idlehour

The offering at the Idlehour next Sunday is Jack Pickford in "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come." Goldwyn couldn't have made a better selection for Jack Pickford than "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come" for it gives him every opportunity that could be offered a juvenile and the star's realization of the part is indeed meritorious. He certainly makes an interesting figure as "Chad," a product of the Cumberland mountain wilds. Throughout the production his performance holds the spectator's interest with little or no variance.

Jack Pickford is coming up stronger all the time and you are sure going to like him in this well known story of John Fox's.

As to the production itself no expense or care has been spared to give it a genuine southern atmosphere, made unusually real because of the accuracy of locations and settings.

Regent Theatre

The question of handling several hundred pigeons which were necessary in the making of the scene for "Judy of Rogues' Harbor," developed into a serious problem as intimate contact with human beings was entirely strange to them.

Mary Miles Minter, the Realart Pictures Star, in whose forthcoming picture the pigeons are used, conceived the idea of making friends with and gaining the confidence of the birds. Two hours daily were devoted to feeding the pigeons, permitting them to perch upon her shoulders and virtually "eat out of her hand." The pigeons soon developed a very friendly feeling, enabling the proper handling of the situation so necessary to the story and which had caused no end of annoyance. Miss Minter, when questioned by her director, William Desmond Taylor, as to her power over the birds, stated naively, "It is as easy to handle human beings as it is dumb animals or birds. Just be natural."

Mary Miles Minter will be seen in "Judy of Rogues' Harbor," her second Realart Picture, which is an adaptation from Grace Miller White's widely read book by the same name which comes to the Regent theatre next Wednesday and Thursday, May 5 and 6. An exceptional all-star cast, including two of the most remarkable veterans of the stage, play the supporting roles.

WRIGHT SCHOOL

George Isham of Pompeii spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Giles Isham.

Miss Elah Rockefeller spent Sunday in Riverdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Johnson spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Conklin near Ithaca.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Smith of Saginaw spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hector Smith.

The rural patrons living west of the Wright School have had to repair and fix their road themselves in order to have the mail men make his daily call.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

The great benefit derived from the use for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been gratefully acknowledged by many. Mrs. Benjamin F. Blakeney, Decatur, Ill. writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is by far the best medicine for colds and coughs we have ever used in our family. I gave it to my children when small for croup and have taken it myself."
